

Chris Holborow

Chris Holborow is the West Region Sales Manager in the Water Division of Orenco Systems®, a company based in Sutherlin, Oregon, that engineers and manufactures innovative infrastructure solutions. In this role, he oversees sales, product training, and support for engineers, regulators, and contractors in the western United States and western Canada. He originally joined Orenco in 2015 as a Technical Sales Representative and later became an Account Manager.

Chris has a Bachelor of Science degree from Oregon State University. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking and camping, following the academic and athletic interests of his children, and spending time with family and friends.
