Rhonda Amer is the Human Resources Director for Orenco Systems, a company based in Sutherlin, Oregon, that engineers and manufactures innovative infrastructure solutions. In this role, she maintains the smooth and efficient operation of the Human Resources (HR) Department, which handles compensation plans, benefits, developing and implementing HR policies and procedures, recruitment and selection, onboarding, employee relations, timekeeping, HR information systems, compliance with HR laws and regulations, strategic staffing plans, and employee development and training.

Rhonda has over 30 years of experience in human resources, with both public and private employers, including Douglas County (Oregon) and Mercy Medical Center. She is accredited through the Society for Human Resource Management. Outside of work, Rhonda is a gardening enthusiast and, along with her husband, a commercial beekeeper with a booth at the local farmer's market selling all things related to bees.
