

Reliability Redefined

Orenco's new Standard TCOM™ Panels set a new standard in telemetry controls for wastewater treatment

Standard TCOM (STCOM) Panels provide your customers with:

- Standardized hardware and programming
- Reliable performance
- Short lead times
- Simplified customer support
- Consistent build quality
- Streamlined ordering
- Clear end-user instructions
- Exceptional value

With STCOM, Orenco has drawn on customer feedback and years of experience to produce a telemetry control panel that's thoroughly tested, simple to order, and easy to use.

To experience the new standard yourself, contact an Orenco Sales Representative.
